and what's with all these rape apologist and enabler dudes always boasting about representing themselves (or claiming/pretending to) in court

Daniel J. Bernstein
From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

For the American businessman and activist, see Daniel J. Bernstein \(businessman\).

Daniel Julius Bernstein (sometimes known simply as djb, born October 29, 1971) is a German-American<sup>[2]</sup> mathematician, cryptologist, programmer, and professor of mathematics and computer science at the Eindhoven University of Technology and research professor at the University of Illinois at Chicago in the mid-1990s, internet software was not designed for security, and cryptography was controlled. Bernstein addressed cryptography by suing the United States Government in 1995 (Bernstein v. United States) and by writing secure software for email, web, and DNS. The
